

Children's Center

A place where healing begins

WORKSHOP SERIES COMING SOON Be a Champion for Your Child: Supporting your child's healing from sexual abuse

Various locations in Clackamas
County – to be announced

*Workshop 1: Steps Toward Healing – Self care and healing for the family, how to support children, minimizing trauma, community resources for support

*Workshop 2: Children's Sexual Behaviors – What's Normal and What's Not
Age appropriate sex education, healthy sexual development, sexual behavior problems in children and how to respond

*Workshop 3: Building Healthy Boundaries – Creating a sense of safety for your child, recognizing “red flag” and grooming behaviors, Internet safety

When: This three-part workshop series will be offered fall, winter, and spring. Contact us for upcoming dates and times and to obtain a registration form.

The workshop series will be offered at no charge to all Clackamas County families and will include educational information, confidential group discussions and support for adult caregivers to a child believed to be a victim of sexual abuse. The series is appropriate for non-offending parents, grandparents, foster parents, adult family members and support persons. Participants are encouraged to bring individual concerns to discuss. Pre-registration for one, two, or all workshops is required for planning purposes. Call the Children's Center Family Support Program at 503-655-7725 for information or to register.

Please Note: We are not able to offer child care services during the workshops.

This workshop series is not available for job-related training. However, our Prevention Education and Outreach staff offers community presentations on child abuse. Call 503-655-7725 for more information.